

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF WEST VIRGINIA
HUNTINGTON DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 3:19-00211

THERESA J. AHRENT
also known as "Theresa J. Young"

ORDER

At the pretrial motion hearing held on November 25, 2019, and for the reasons stated on the record, the Court DENIED Defendant Theresa J. Ahrent's Motion to Suppress (ECF No. 18) and granted her unopposed oral motion to continue the trial of this matter currently set for December 3, 2019. The Court found that there was justifiable need for further discovery to obtain medical records. The requested delay is not attributable to lack of diligent preparation, failure to obtain evidence or witnesses, or congestion of the Court's calendar.

Believing that the ends of justice served by granting a continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, the Court GRANTED a brief continuance of the trial date. Trial will begin on February 19, 2020, at 8:30 a.m. in Huntington. Proposed voir dire, jury instructions, and witness lists are now due on February 11, 2020. The Court FINDS that the time between December 3, 2019, and February 19, 2020, is excludable from the computation of time within which trial must commence, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

The Court DIRECTS the Clerk to send a copy of this Order to counsel and the defendant, the United States Attorney's Office, the United States Probation Office, and the United States Marshals Service.

ENTER: November 26, 2019
